Master Your Creativity

February's energy is about the re-evolution of your subconscious becoming conscious. Creating a rebirth into freedom and uniting the mind, body, and spirit. This is a big month for healing so be sure to rest, relax, let go, purge and release control issues. Tools that will help you are your intuition, sensitivity, empathy, lightness, and tenderness.

Freeing Control

March's energy is about initiative, the courage of original thought, and initiating something new. Seven planets change signs this month, which means seven new directions and new programs are being started. They are how you see and think of yourself spiritually and as a warrior; how you feel, love, and believe in mother earth; and how you act as a nurturer, manage your consciousness, and transform your consciousness of doubt through grace, compassion, universal love and your farsighted vision.
