APRIL: Silence Guidance

Universal Month 13/4 Divine Manifestation

Energy Description: April is the month to bring into matter what matters and what really only matters to you, is YOU! This is about the Silence Guidance that only you can give to yourself. This access point -- going from your head into your heart- yields the light that nurtures from compassion, respect, humility and leadership.

Contemplation: Investigate thoughts that initiate feelings of inner turbulence. Specifically, ones rooted in failure or being not enough. Then ask for the gift of Detachment; then take a breath, go from your head into your heart, and allow yourself to receive your Silence Guidance.

Astrological Guidance:

- Humanity's Exquisiteness - April 4 Saturn sextile Uranus: The month begins with a directive to break through and be the enforcer of your values and dreams from a place of love and celebration. It says to release your exquisite style which emanates from your unique frequency vibration. This frequency guides you to step into your authority and approach life from the gift of adventure and acceptance so you can come to peace.
- Compassion - April 7 Mercury Stations Direct and April 12 Venus Stations Direct: Both Mercury and Venus go direct in Gene Key #36 Compassion, Humanity, Turbulence. This is about going forward through your turbulence, your inner turbulence and allowing yourself to think with compassion, to think from a place of humanity's wholeness. It is about going forward with the values from the heart and how that guidance brings you out of turbulence and into wholeness. If you run into a moment of turbulence, a time of turbulence, take a pause, take a breath and allow yourself to go from your head into your heart and then move forward.
